

Duke Intern Housing Program

Individuals who are interning within the Raleigh/Durham area during the Summer of 2022 may apply for on campus housing at Duke University. Individual interns will be billed for their housing and dining charges for the summer. Details on the program and policies are below.

Housing Dates: May 22 to July 31 – interns must stay for at least 14 days to qualify for program

Housing Options: 300 Swift Apartments – roommates will be assigned at random

Who can apply: Duke and Non-Duke College Students can apply. Students must be enrolled in Fall 2022 classes. Must be 18 years old or older. Please note, that if you are taking classes at Duke this summer, your housing will be through HRL, not CES.

Application deadline: Monday, April 4, 2022

Vaccination Requirements:

All Intern Housing Program Participants must submit proof of COVID-19 vaccination or have an approved medical or religious exemption. Unvaccinated individuals must continue to wear masks and participate in regular surveillance testing. Booster shots are now also required for all Duke students and employees.

Rates:

Double AC - $40 per night

Single AC - $50 per night

NC Sales Tax will apply

Dining:

A meal plan is required of all participants living on campus this summer. The meal plan is $18 per day. Your meal plan for the summer will be calculated on $18 x the number of nights you are on campus. That total will be added to your card when you move in. It is a declining cash balance that can be used at our vendor in 300 Swift, in the Brodhead Center (West Campus), or the Marketplace (East Campus).

Billing:

A $100 deposit will be required before May 1, 2022 Your final bill for housing and dining charges will be based on the occupancy dates on your Housing Agreement. They will not be adjusted if your occupancy dates change after your agreement has been signed.

Non-Duke Students must pay 50% of housing and meal plan two weeks before move-in. Final payment is due two weeks in advance of move out.

Housing Agreement:

Interns must sign a Housing Agreement between them and Conference and Event Services.
